March 19, 2020

Due to public health and safety concerns of COVID-19, Edgewood Town Hall will be closed to the public until further notice. During this time, Town personnel will still provide services to citizens electronically or by phone at 505-286-4518 or email us at clerk@edgewood-nm.gov. Town services, such as police, road repair, and maintenance and operations will continue to be fully operational. Parks and Recreation facilities are closed. The Library and Community Building will also remain closed as well.

The Edgewood Municipal Court will remain open and operating during its usual hours of operation. For more information about the court please call 926-9031.

Public Health and Safety is the highest priority for our Town and in order to slow the spread of Covid-19, we have made the difficult decision to close our Town facilities. We will strive to provide the best public service keeping in mind that the health and wellbeing of our residents and staff is job number one.

Please check the Town Website for all updates and contact information for all departments.
