Department News

- 1) Employee of the quarter
 - a. 1st quarter, Amber Marez – self initiated activity, assisting with NMML prep, stepping up and taking on admin assistant role while vacated
 - b. 2nd quarter, Armando Campos – Evidence room upkeep and revamp, NMML inspection went well and staff commented to us that this was the sharpest room they have seen.
 - c. 2nd quarter Animal Control, Mike Ring – with the transfer of Tim Dvorak, Mike stepped up, kept the shelter running and open by himself for several weeks without a day off.
- 2) Held the last movie night of 2019 and were finally able to have it on the field under the stars
- 3) New hire, Animal Control Officer Ryan Hagerty, has settled in nicely and is developing the skill set needed to be a successful ACO with the guidance of ACO Ring
- 4) New hire, Administrative Assistant Nina McCracken, is up and running. Administrative files are getting caught up and we are clearing the backlog with her self-motivated style of work.

Upcoming Events

- 1) Public Safety day, August 17 from 10am-2pm at Rich Ford Edgewood. Free family event showcasing local law enforcement and first responders.
