Department News

1. The Open House was held on September 20th. We had about 35 people come through and tour the building.

2. Officer Haughney phase 2 Crash Investigation through IPTM offered by Safer New Mexico, 80-hour course
3. Officer Marez attended Domestic Violence Instructor training for two days in Albuquerque, NM.
4. Sgt. Lovato and Sgt. Urbina attended a two-day Advanced Search and Seizure training in Santa Fe, NM.
5. Animal Control Officer Hagerty attended the New Mexico Conference on the Link Between Animal Abuse and Human Violence.
6. Officer Bell attending the Regional Conference on Child Abuse and Neglect in Albuquerque, NM.

7. Woofstock 2019! The event was well attended with the usual large crowd. Edgewood Animal Control adopted 4 canines and implanted 12 microchips. Raffle donations brought in $402.00 to the Animal Shelter Fund. Moriarty, Santa fe, Albuquerque all had good adoptions, with Moriarty adopting all the canines they brought. Rescue groups like Doberman Rescue and Greyhound Rescue attracted many people who had not seen these types of canines. The field events, Badco Flyball and Fast Action Dogs, were also an attraction with many people inquiring about their training . Mr. B's Grubshack supplied great food. The band the Phunboys played a great selection of music suitable for the crowd.
